

Co-funded by
the European Union

CSG | GoSB

Contents

- 01. About CSG
- 02. Origin
- 03. Meaning
- 04. Articles
- 05. Actualities
- 06. Place for discussion

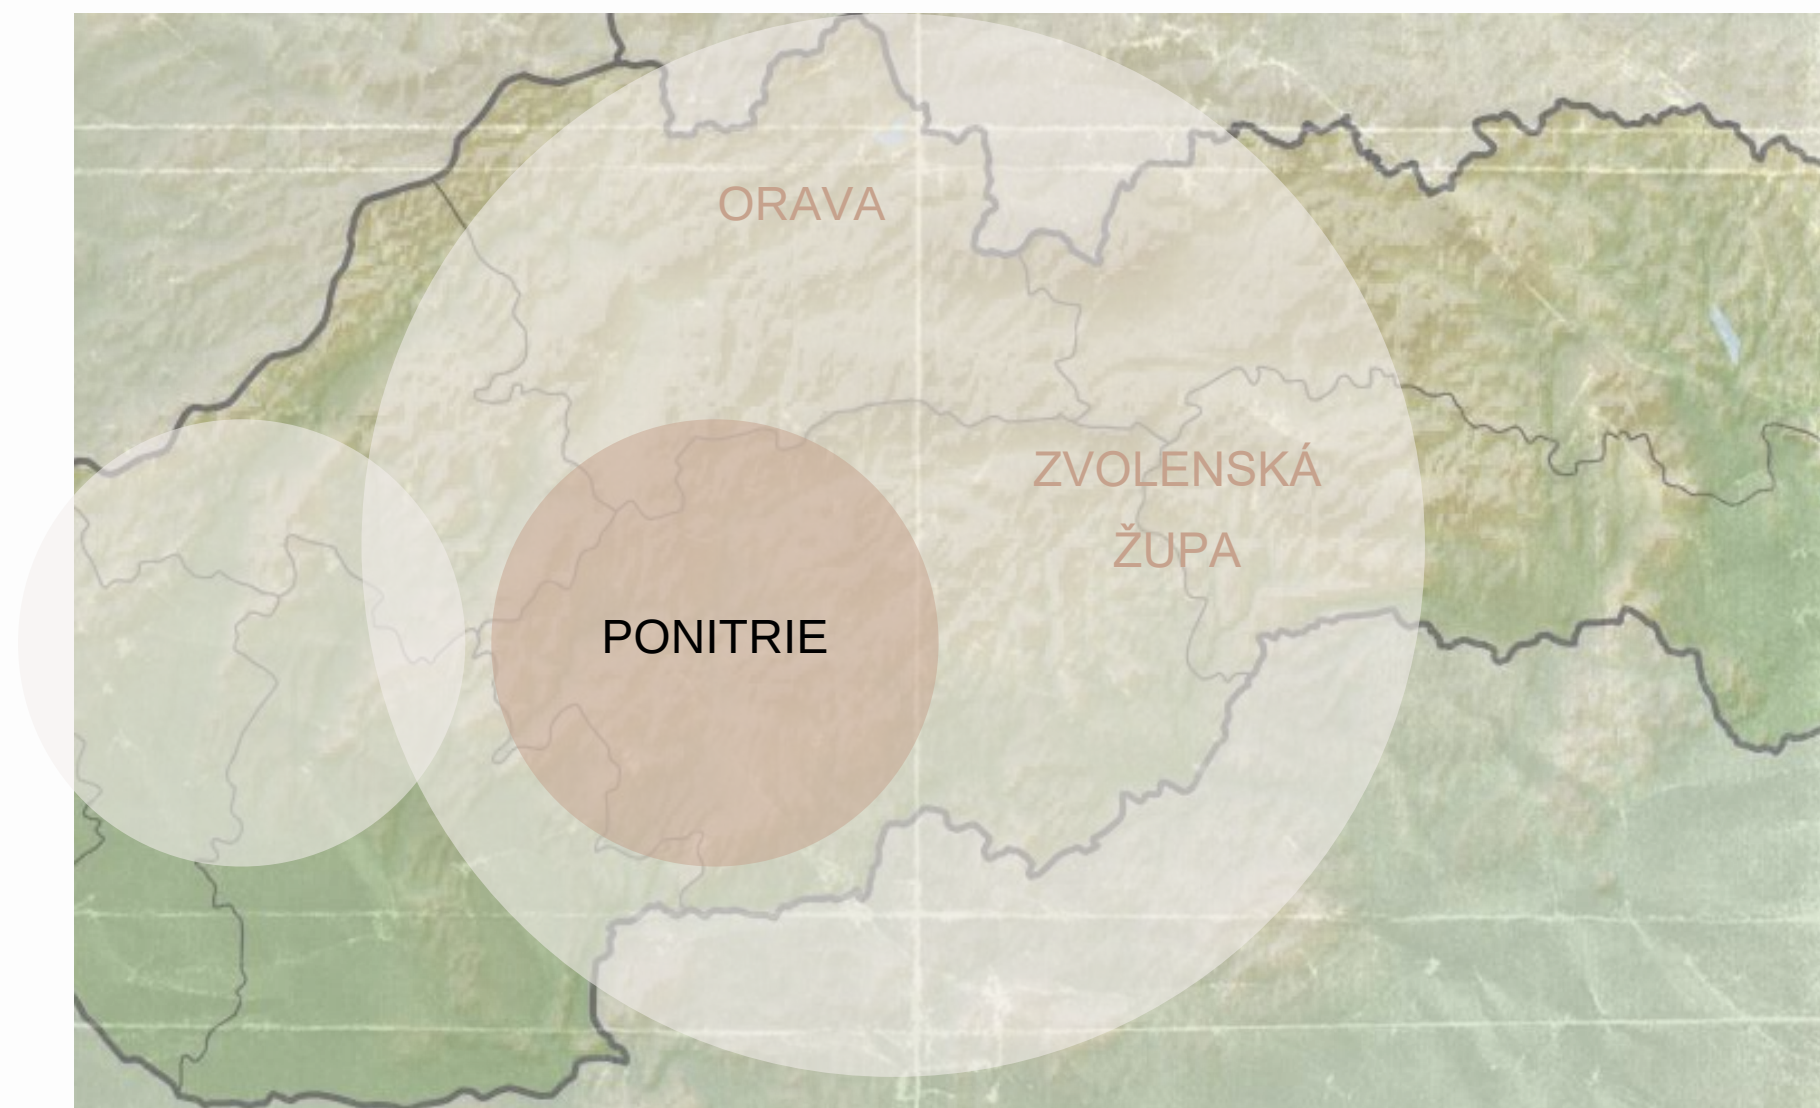

About

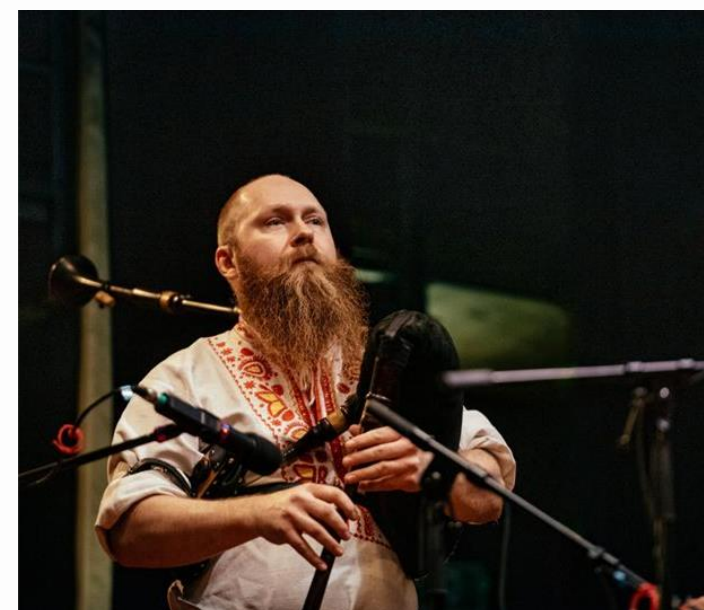

Non-governmental organization

More then 90 members

5 guild representatives

Guardians of the tradition

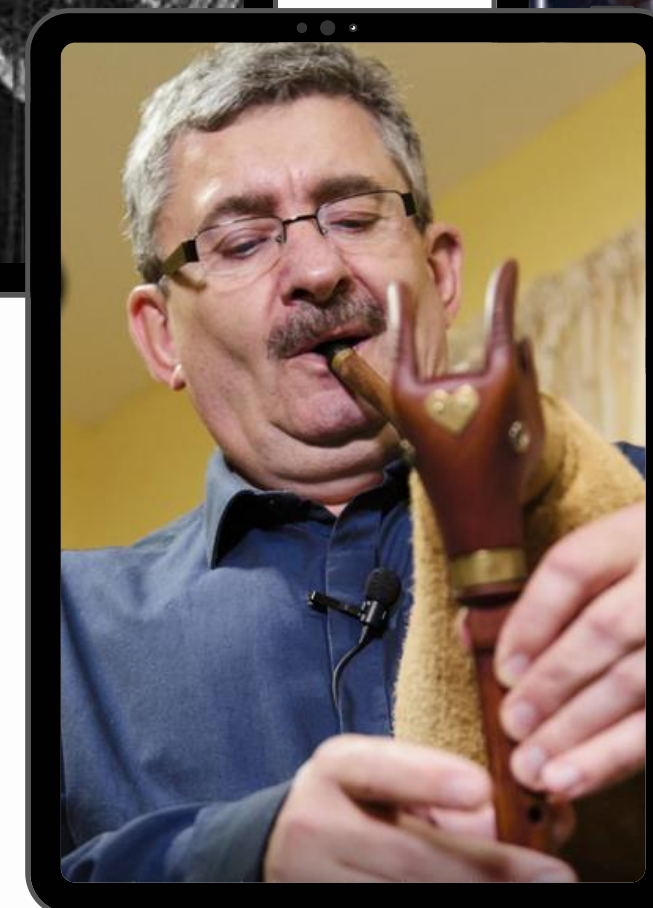

Origin

Founders: Bernard Garaj, Milan Rusko and Juraj Hamar

1992

Will to create organised community with great opportunities

From recessionary organisation to NGO

Meaning

Maintain, document, promote and develop the traditions, knowledge, craft and artistic skills associated with playing the bagpipes

Opportunities

Community

Shared knowledge with friends

Articles

1

About the Articles

Introducing the meaning
and the value of the articles.

About the Guild

Introducing the meaning,
values of the guild and responsibilities of the members.

2

3

Article three on the organization of the Guild.

- učeň/apprentice
- tovariš/intermediate/journeyman
- majster/master

About the Guild insignia

- Ferula
- Guild emblem
- Guild seal
- Guild chest
- Guild bottle

4

Articles

5

About the documents

- Tovarišská knížka/Journeyman's book
- Majstrovský list/Master's certificate

About behavior

The obligation to perform one's playcraft
honestly, well and decently

6

Actualities

UNESCO- Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity

Center of European bagpipers
in Oravská Polhora

Co-funded by
the European Union

Sustainability of bagpipes in Slovakia

Festival Gajdošské Fašiangy

- 1987
- Meeting of interested people
- Sharing
- Fasiang carnival with a bagpiper

(zdroj Majstri – foto T. Sabó?)

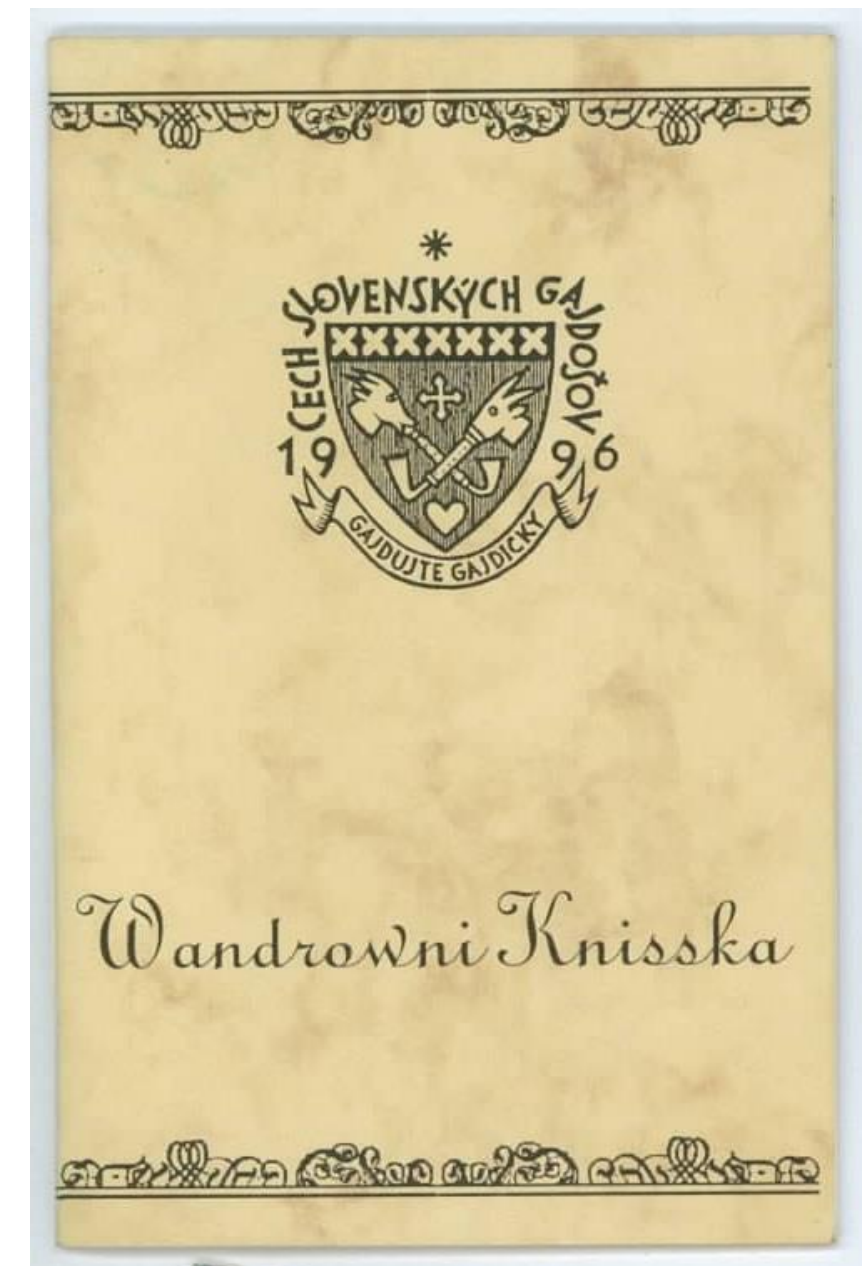

Festival Gajdovačka

- 2000
- Orava region
- Competition of young bagpipers

Slovak Bagpipers Guild

- Initiation ritual
- Ranks

Technological advance

- Bagpipe technical issues
- Rastislav Trnovec
- Juraj Dufek

New trends in bagpipe music

- New instruments
- New styles
- SHS

Vďaka za pozornosť/

Thank you for your attention!

